

Create and insert a Creative Commons License in a Wordpress web site

Introduction

In this tutorial we will learn how to create a Creative Commons license to insert into our Wordpress website.

We will see the different types of Creative Commons licenses that there are and how to download the html code to insert it on our website.

We will also make some variations in the code to improve its visualization.

Finally, we will see an example of a website where we can download material with a Creative Commons license that we can use in our projects.

Create the Creative Commons License

We ingres into the Creative Commons page, <https://creativecommons.org>

We ingress at the Share your work tab and in the Choose a license box we enter into Get Started.

And we are already on the page where we will create the license. The default page is in English, if we wanted to change the language we would go to the bottom of the page and click on the language we wanted.

This page is available in the following languages:
Bahasa Indonesia Bahasa Malaysia Castellano (Españā) Català Dansk Deutsch English
Español Esperanto Euskara français Galego hrvatski Italiano Latviski Lietuvių Magyar
Nederlands norsk polski Português Português (BR) română Slovenščina suomi svenska
Türkçe Íslenska čeština Ελληνικά Беларуская українська العربية پارسی বাংলা 中文 日本語

The licences

We check that the selected license is the one we want.

Attribution CC BY

This license lets others distribute, remix, tweak, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This is the most accommodating of licenses offered. Recommended for maximum dissemination and use of licensed materials.

Attribution-ShareAlike CC BY-SA

This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work even for commercial purposes, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms. This license is often compared to “copyleft” free and open source software licenses. All new works based on yours will carry the same license, so any derivatives will also allow commercial use. This is the license used by Wikipedia and is recommended for materials that would benefit from incorporating content from Wikipedia and similarly licensed projects.

Attribution-NoDerivs CC BY-ND

This license allows for redistribution, commercial and non-commercial, as long as it is passed along unchanged and in whole, with credit to you.

Attribution-NonCommercial CC BY-NC

This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work non-commercially, and although their new works must also acknowledge you and be non-commercial, they don't have to license their derivative works on the same terms.

Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike CC BY-NC-SA

This license lets others remix, tweak, and build upon your work non-commercially, as long as they credit you and license their new creations under the identical terms.

Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs CC BY-NC-ND

This license is the most restrictive of our six main licenses, only allowing others to download your works and share them with others as long as they credit you, but they can't change them in any way or use them commercially.

Attribution

To the licence text you can add the data referring to the attribute of the work, this is totally optional, in the case that we want them to appear we must fill in the following box:

Help others attribute you!
This part is optional, but filling it out will add machine-readable metadata to the suggested HTML!

Title of work  ?

Attribute work to name  ?

Attribute work to URL  ?

Source work URL  ?

More permissions URL  ?

Format of work Other / Multiple formats ?

License mark HTML+RDFa ?

Obtaining the HTML code

Now we can see the image of the definitive license with the text. We copy the code that appears in the box.

Have a web page?

This work is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License.

Copy this code to let your visitors know!

`

If we want to modify the size of the text, we put the text inside a paragraph ` text </ p>` and inside the paragraph we put the code `style = "font-size: x%"` where x will be the percentage, we want to give to the text

And it will be like this:

```
This work is licensed under a Creative Commons
Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International License
```
